

Cumali

Cumali works to empower the homeless by engaging with them where they live on Lower Wacker Drive in Chicago without judgment or prerequisite. Once a week on Mondays, volunteers provide hot meals, socks, underwear, blankets, coats, and other clothing.

Learn more: <https://www.cumali.org>

Ravenswood Community Services

Ravenswood Community Services provides food and supplies to their neighbors in the Ravenswood and surrounding neighborhoods in Chicago. They strive to offer services and connections to resources that help people realize health, stability, and self-sufficiency. Every Tuesday night, they distribute fresh, nutritionally balanced groceries to 150-250 households.

Learn more: <https://www.ravenswoodcommunityservices.org>

St. Leonard's Ministries

St. Leonard's empowers formerly incarcerated men and women to lead whole and productive lives. Participants have access to the variety of services needed for successful reentry, including access to safe housing, basic needs, life skills training, behavioral and physical health care, and workforce development training all on one campus.

Learn more: <https://slministries.org>